Please answer the following questions:

1) Are you currently competing and if so at what level:

2) Please indicate you're riding accomplishments over the past two years:

3) Please provide information about your involvement in your horse's general care, preparation before riding and care after riding, and any other work/help you do at your stable.

4) What are your goals in your riding and general education?

5) Describe yourself and why you should be considered for the SSHG.

Closing date for receipt of the applications will be Dec. 1, 2020. The application should be e-mailed to the GHJA executive secretary. The grants will be presented at the GHJA banquet.

All applicants for the SSHG will be evaluated by the GHJA SSHG committee. If a committee member has a professional or personal relationship with an applicant, they may not be involved in the discussion or decision involving that applicant's awarding of a grant.

Please note that incomplete or inaccurate information on the application will eliminate the applicant from further consideration for a grant.

Please sign or type your name to acknowledge the accuracy of the information you have provided.
